

MODULE 3 ANSWERS

1. HIV is a death sentence. False
2. It is possible for HIV-positive couples to have HIV-negative children True
3. It is an easy thing to disclose one's status. False
4. People should be forced to disclose their status. True
5. It is essential to adhere to one's ARV regimen. True
6. How long does one have to wait to start ARVs: A. Right Away
7. What happens if an ARV regimen is not followed?
A. HIV becomes resistant to the ARVs.
8. What are the consequences of second line ARVs?
  - ~ Nausea
  - Weight Gain or Loss
  - ~ Headaches
  - ~ others
9. What is it called when someone is tired of taking ARVs? ARV treatment fatigue
10. Who do you have to accept before disclosing your status to anyone? Yourself
11. Then who does David Ngele suggest you disclose to (when you're ready?)
Your Family
12. Your status only affects you. False
13. What are benefits to disclosing one's status?
  - Family Support
  - Assistance in adhering to ARVs
  - Not having to hide one's status